1. Particulars of report

Section 273 of the Companies Act 1997 provides:

(1) Not later than two months after his appointment, a receiver shall prepare a report on the state of affairs with respect to the property in receivership including -

- (a) particulars of the assets comprising the property in receivership; and
- (b) particulars of the debts and liabilities to be satisfied from the property in receivership; and
- (c) the names and addresses of the creditors with an interest in the property in receivership; and
- (d) particulars of any encumbrance over the property in receivership held by any creditor including the date on which it was created; and
- (e) particulars of any default by the company in making relevant information available; and
- (f) such other information as may be prescribed.

(2) The report under Subsection (1) shall also include details of -

- (a) the events leading up to the appointment of the receiver, so far as the receiver is aware of them; and
- (b) property disposed of and any proposals for the disposal of property in receivership; and
- (c) amounts owing, as at the date of appointment, to any person in whose interests the receiver was appointed; and
- (d) amounts owing, as at the date of appointment, to creditors of the company having preferential claims; and
- (e) amounts likely to be available for payment to creditors other than those referred to in Paragraph (c) or (d).

(3) A receiver may omit from the report details of any proposals for disposal of the property in receivership if he considers that their inclusion would materially prejudice the exercise of his functions.

(4) A receiver who fails to comply with this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to the penalty set out in Section 413(2).
