1. Further reports by receiver

Section 274 of the Companies Act 1997 provides -

- (1) Not later than two months after -
(a) the end of each period of six months after his appointment as receiver; and
(b) the date on which the receivership ends, a receiver or a person who was a receiver at the end of the receivership, as the case may be, shall prepare a further report summarising the state of affairs with respect to the property in receivership as at those dates, and the conduct of the receivership, including all amounts received and paid, during the period to which the report relates.

- (2) The report under Subsection (1) shall include details of -
(a) property disposed of since the date of any previous report and any proposals for the disposal of property in receivership; and
(b) amounts owing, as at the date of the report, to any person in whose interests the receiver was appointed; and
(c) amounts owing, as at the date of the report, to creditors of the company having preferential claims; and
(d) amounts likely to be available as at the date of the report for payment to creditors other than those referred to in Paragraph (b) or (c).

- (3) A receiver may omit from the report required to be prepared in accordance with Subsection (1)(a) details of any proposals for disposal of property in receivership where he considers that their inclusion would materially prejudice the exercise of his functions.

- (4) Every person who fails to comply with this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to the penalty set out in Section 413(2).
